WARE MALCOMB CEO LAWRENCE R. ARMSTRONG COMMENCES NEW ART EXHIBIT IN MIAMI

IRVINE, Calif. (January 16, 2015) – Ware Malcomb, an award-winning international design firm, today announced that its Chief Executive Officer, Lawrence R. Armstrong, who is also an accomplished artist, will be exhibiting his work at Art Fusion Galleries in Miami from January through March 2015. Art Fusion Galleries, which represents artists from around the world, is located in Miami’s Wynwood Art District at 3550 North Miami Avenue in Miami, Florida.

Art Fusion Galleries will be featuring four works from Armstrong’s Layered Vision Collection: Solstice, Order, Metro and Fanfare. “I think these works are magnificent,” said William Braemer, Director of Art Fusion Galleries. “They will be a perfect fit in our contemporary gallery space.”

More information and photos of the works being shown can be found on the Art Fusion Galleries website.

Mr. Armstrong recently completed a number of art exhibitions in Madrid, Toronto and Miami. His recent showings include: Iocandina Synchronies in Madrid from October 2-15, 2014, Art Tour International in Toronto from September 11-27, 2014, and Art Tour International in Miami from September 5 – 12, 2014. Armstrong’s paintings and sculptures are also currently being displayed at a year-long showing at Art Blend in Fort Lauderdale, Florida.

Armstrong’s paintings and sculptures represent an ongoing exploration of the concept of layers: both how they interact and intersect with one another, and also the meanings contained within. For Armstrong, layers are to be found everywhere: in space and time, in intellect, in emotion, and in the synthesis and interpretation of form. Whether two- or three-dimensional in scope, the artwork that results is almost multisensory in nature, eliciting from the viewer a multifaceted experience of the wondrous complexity that ultimately composes our world. A piece of artwork is often precipitated by flashes of light and inspiration derived from anything from written text to music to a particular event. Regardless of its origins, through his art Armstrong explores the natural tension inherent in opposing forces, whether it’s the natural world versus built environments, or other paradigms such as chaos/order, free form/precision, random/planned action, and solid/void.
